Physical Outdoor Challenges

Enjoy the outdoors and the fresh air with fun team activities. Our selection of challenges is a great way to bring a team together and bring out their competitive and collaborative spirit.

Corporate Amazing Race | 1.5 - 2 hours, minimum 10 – 300+ participants

Amazing Race has all the best parts you would expect from the show, including checkpoint challenges, roadblocks, detours & fast forwards. The Amazing Races are designed to be completed on foot and on average, cover approximately 3-5kms of total walking.

We work closely with your team to design the challenges, so you get the most out of your team building experience. We have over 30 challenges currently available (and are constantly working on more), ranging from logic-style puzzles to a cheer routine using Pom Poms and everything in between. All our challenges are specifically designed to improve communication & teamwork among the teams with a huge emphasis on fun.

Spy Race | 1.5 hours - 2+ hours, minimum 10-300+ participants

The Corporate Spy Race is truly a different kind of team race. Taking place in the underworld of espionage and secret agents, the event is part Amazing Race, part escape room.

Enter the secret world of spies, secret messages, and a terrorist threat. We create a countdown webpage to pass to your team. It gives your team their first instructions and some points to remember – mainly that they are undercover agents and must remain covert. When the team meets, one of our actors will approach them and introduce themselves as their field contact and outline the current threat.

Evidence dossiers are provided, and the teams must decipher the information enclosed to determine where to go and what information is needed. Typically, some locations will have an undercover agent (one of our actors) who they must covertly interact with. In contrast, other places have hidden codes and messages to find and solve. Once all clues are solved, teams race to test their answers, unlock a key, find a solution, or even disarm a bomb.

Corporate Mystery Race | 1.5 hours – 2+ hours, minimum 10-300+ participants

The Corporate Mystery Race is perfect for a competitive group wanting to mix their detective skills with a team race. Our host, “the Detective,” meets your teams and provides the brief. Entirely in character, our host will explain that a murder has happened and that the participants are part of the investigation team tasked with solving the crime.

The teams are split and given a briefing pack with crime scene photos and clues to the descriptions and whereabouts of several witnesses. Teams must race to find the witnesses, interrogate them, gather evidence, and ultimately accuse the killer. Our actors are well hidden in parks, cafes and crowds. The investigators must work hard to locate, identify and question these characters. This race works best in an urban environment.

Corporate Property Race | 1.5 hours – 2+ hours, minimum 10-300+ participants

Our Corporate Property Race is a giant game of Monopoly on steroids! Instead of rolling the dice and moving your piece around a board, your team physically races to the actual location!

More physical than our Corporate Amazing Race, the winning team must devise a strategy to visit their target properties before anyone else. If they arrive after the property has already gone, they must pay rent! Our Property races are perfect if you are looking for a competitive, dynamic & physical team building event.

The Race starts in a central location. However, the exact location is released on the actual race’s morning. Our host will meet your teams, get them set up with the technology and go through the game’s rules. As the Race starts, each team receives a map and a copy of the playing board. It is then entirely up to the team whether they race off immediately or plan their strategy.

Tricky Indoor Team Building Encounters

Fun and thought-provoking games that demand working together effectively to solve problems. Being indoors also means you are not at the mercy of the weather.

Quiz Masters | 1 – 2 hours, 10 - Unlimited participants

Pub-style trivia at its best. We have a wide range of trivia rounds that we play as well as some fun, fast-paced games in between rounds to get everyone up & moving around the room.

We work closely with you to determine which categories best suit your team. We are also happy to tailor-make your trivia if you have a subject you want to cover! We can also theme your trivia event to suit your team or specific event.

Game Show | 1 – 2 hours, 10 - Unlimited participants

This event is loosely based on several shows, including Family Feud, Minute to Win it, The Price is Right, Wheel of Fortune and more. This event has many different elements & we can customise the activities to best suit your team's requirements. We have an extensive catalogue of games and activities that we can (or not) include in your event, so we will work closely with you to ensure your team gets the most out of your Game Show event. The game Show event also works well as a breakout session for your conference.

A gripping expedition, deep into the desert | 1.5 – 2 hours, minimum 10 participants

Your mission is to travel into the desert to collect a vitally important letter. Can you listen to others to plan efficiently and manage logistics? Your very lives depend on it.

Your mission is to travel to a location deep in the desert to collect a vitally important letter. The quest could mean the difference between life and death. You have a map, a vehicle to travel in and a coded message that will reveal the location – but little else. Good luck!

Can you make it across the aircraft hangar? | 1.5 – 2 hours, minimum 10 participants

A classic team building exercise that pits team against team to beat both the clock and other teams. Groups must organise, plan, share data, solve problems and work together effectively under pressure.

The challenge is to cross the aircraft hangar using oil drums and planks (scaled down to a tabletop), but alas, there are pitfalls on the way. This game is an excellent opportunity for a well-organised team to get ahead.

Open a wine bar | 4 – 5 hours, minimum 10 participants

What could be more fun than opening a wine bar? From choosing a name, marketing and financial decisions to overcoming missing money, this game demands a strong, unified strategy.

This is business decision-making in a condensed and entertaining format. Each team's decisions are recorded on a simple form fed into a laptop, and the financial results, messages, and required actions are then printed for consideration.

Engaging Hybrid and Virtual Activities

Online Amazing Race | 1.5 – 2 hour minimum participants 10 – unlimited

Online Amazing Race plays most of the challenges & tasks from the comfort of your home. Our Online Amazing Race starts in Sydney, where your team must complete an online task before getting to their next destination.

This event is like a choose-your-own adventure, where your team chooses their next checkpoint where another challenge awaits. Make your way through all the challenges & be the first team back to Sydney to be crowned the winning team.

All our online challenges are designed to encourage teamwork, with a significant emphasis on fun! The tasks & challenges are completed in breakout rooms where the teams must work together to complete the activity before being able to move on to their next pitstop!

Virtual Murder Mystery | 2 hours, minimum participants 10 – unlimited

Our Online (Virtual) hosted Murder Mystery events are unique. This is a real murder mystery with real live actors.

A scenario and background are firstly provided. You will then be able to examine the crime scene via our 360-degree photosystem. You can walk around the crime scene, analyse clues and gather evidence, ready to cross-examine the witnesses and suspects. Using a mixture of live actors, video, virtual walkaround photography and technology, and a team dossier to keep your findings private makes this one-of-a-kind event exciting and challenging.

Each person enters via their computer (rather than multiple people around a single screen). A desktop or laptop computer with a mouse is recommended, rather than a touchpad or touch screen.

As we adapt to hybrid work and distributed teams, it's more important than ever to carve out dedicated time to bring your people together. We can devise cutting-edge virtual & hybrid team-building events.

Whilst we use the Zoom platform for all our online games/trivia, we can consider other platforms. We will set up the link for you to share with your team. All you need to do is log on & enjoy.

Online Trivia | 1.5 – 2 hours minimum participants 10 – unlimited

We have a wide range of trivia rounds that we play and some fun, fast-paced games in between rounds to get everyone up & moving around.

Trivia rounds can cover General Knowledge, Geography, Science, Entertainment, Food & more. We work closely with you to determine which categories best suit your team. We can also tailor-make your trivia if you have a subject you want to cover. We can also theme your trivia event to suit your team or specific event.

With our online trivia, we score each round & tally the results to crown the winning team.

Creative Cook-Offs & Wine Tastings

Choose from engaging and interactive creative food and wine games. Challenges that taste great, from pasta making to amusing wine games, get your troop's taste buds and brain cells working overtime.

Culinary events commence with a welcome drink and canape.

Make your own pasta | 2.5 hours, minimum 10 participants

A tasty event accompanied by a relaxing glass of wine. Participants form groups to learn the art of pasta making, with instruction from our capable chefs. You will prepare an egg pasta dough, knead it and roll it to create your choice of ravioli, raviolo or tortellini.

While the pasta is cooking, enjoy shared entrees and (of course) more wine. The best bit? Eating your own fresh homemade pasta. Plenty of laughter makes this a fulfilling end to a busy day.

Vegetarian and vegan options are available.

Battle of the 'Buds | 1.5 hours, minimum 10 participants

Two games. Six wines. No labels. Take part in two blind tastings and a race to identify wines. No prerequisite wine knowledge is required, just a logical mind and tuned-in taste buds.

This game begins with everyone standing, but there will just be one by the end. The first three wines are tasted blind over three separate rounds. Answer each question (paying attention to the clues) to stay in the round.

Using knowledge acquired in the first game, teams take turns questioning the presenter in a race to guess the wine. Only 'yes' or "no" questions are permitted. Get a 'no', and you are back to the bottom of the queue. The team that first identifies the wine's region, year, and type gets the prize.

(Includes cheese and charcuterie boards).

The Blend Master | 2.5 hours, minimum 10 participants

In this game, participants learn the basics of wine blending and compete in teams to create the tastiest drop. Which team will produce a wine worthy of the racks of your local fine wine cellar?

Progressive tastings of the blended product are performed, with a team prize awarded for the best wine of the evening. All equipment required to create the perfect blend is provided.
